

After the repair work was completed, the concrete columns and beams were protected with buff colored FX-460 Breathable Masonry Coating.

The brick panels were pressure washed (4,000 psi \pm) and sealed with transparent FX-425 Silane Penetrating Sealer. FX-425 prevents water intrusion and helps to keep the structure clean.

Architect: Cochran, Stephenson & Donkervoet
Richard C. Donkervoet, F A I A

Engineers: George Evans & Associates
Mark Cunningham