

Repairs are being performed using swing stage scaffolding.

Repairs are complete and concrete is ready to have surface protection applied.

Concrete beams and columns are then protected and aesthetically enhanced using the FX-460 Breathable Masonry Coating System. The system provides long lasting high performance properties resulting from the unique, combination of water repellency and vapor permeability.